TUTOR SHOWCASE

SUMMER 2009

CHYTEN SCOTTSDALE

During each news update, we highlight one of our tutors. In this issue we will shine the light on Dr. Montye Fuse.

Montye P. Fuse holds a doctorate degree in Ethnic Studies and American Literature from the University of California, Berkeley. He specializes in 19th and 20th century American literature and American poetry. Dr. Fuse has published numerous scholarly articles in the fields of American literature and American history, and is an accomplished researcher and writer. Dr. Fuse holds a bachelor's degree in English from California State University, Long Beach. He taught on the faculty at Arizona State University for eleven years before leaving the university to start a consulting firm, the Institute for Common Environments, LLC. Dr. Fuse enjoys teaching students of all ages, and serves at Chyten as a tutor in English and History at all levels.
